

Preventing Bullying in Sport

Whether participating in a sport, coaching or volunteering everyone should be aware of what bullying is and how it can be prevented. At EduCare we ensure that all of our courses are written and endorsed by experts. This course has been produced in partnership with UK Athletics, the governing body for the sport of athletics in the United Kingdom.

Key features

- Level 2 course (as graded against the nationally accepted levels, equivalent to GCSE grades A*-C).
- One module with a multiple choice questionnaire.
- One CPD credit* with a personalised downloadable certificate.
- 70% pass mark.
- Produced in partnership with UK Athletics.
- Optional narration of each module for accessibility.
- Additional resources for further learning and printable module for future reference.

*1 CPD credit equates up to 1 hour of learning

Course objectives

This course is aimed at all staff, coaches and volunteers working in the sports sector. The purpose of this course is to help you understand:

1. what bullying is
2. prevalence of bullying in sport
3. why it is important to respond to bullying
4. the signs and indicators of bullying
5. bullying behaviour
6. the effects of bullying
7. how to respond to bullying
8. responding to a bullying disclosure
9. promoting positive behaviour.

Why choose us?

“ The Child Protection in Sport & Active Leisure course is part of our Welcome and Induction for new staff. Everyone completes the course within their first week. They like how they can train at their own pace and that they can print off their certificate of completion. ”

Anne Lovering
Head of learning and Development, Edinburgh Leisure

