Selection Policy

Overview

Given its place in the global calendar, British Athletics intends to select both a men's and women's team for the 2019 European 10,000m Cup with the following two aims in mind:

- Select the best team possible to achieve the best GB & NI team result;
- Provide opportunities for athletes on the pathway to GB & NI representation at future major championships.

There will be no trial event for the European 10,000m Cup.

As in 2018, the 2019 European 10,000m Cup will be integrated into the A races at the very popular the "Night of the 10,000m PBs" at Parliament Hill, Highgate in London. In addition to athletes representing GB and NI in the European 10,000m Cup, other British athletes will take part in the A races as the event will also host the British Athletics 10,000m trial for the 2019 IAAF World Championships.

All questions related to the selection policy should be directed to Team Leader Mark Pollard (mark.pollard@scottishathletics.org.uk).
