

Independent Non-Executive Director – Athletic Ventures LLP

A hugely exciting opportunity to Chair a new joint venture set up by UK Athletics (UKA), The Great Run Company (GRC) and London Marathon Events (LME) to transform the future and growth of athletics in the UK and oversee the delivery of major athletics events. The partnership will bring together the best event organisers in the sport, combining world class creative, broadcast and event operations expertise with a commercially focused on entrepreneurial vision.

Athletic Ventures will set the strategic direction, under which subsidiary OpCos will deliver the 2026 European Athletics Championships in Birmingham (ECH2026), the annual edition of the Diamond League in the UK (DLV) and also lead the bidding process for the World Athletics Championships to return to the UK in 2029. The organisation will also take over the quest to find new commercial partners for athletics in the UK, offering opportunities from grassroots activities to national events and the UK athletics teams at major championships in an innovative 'playground to podium' sponsorship programme.

The INED will be a key representative of the organisation, providing strategic leadership to enable it to fulfil all responsibilities for governance, strategic direction and delivery of objectives.
